Description

The Lighthouse is an exclusive residential development located in the heart of Cascais, designed for those who value comfort, natural light and a sophisticated lifestyle by the sea.

The project stands out for its contemporary architecture and modern layouts, which prioritize the functionality of spaces and abundant natural light. Every detail has been carefully considered to provide elegant, welcoming and timeless environments.

The careful selection of high-quality materials, such as natural wood, marble and metallic elements, gives the interiors a sophisticated and harmonious character, reflecting a balance between modernity and comfort.

Situated in a central and prestigious area of Cascais, the development benefits from a privileged location, with easy access to local shops, restaurants, services, cultural areas and green spaces, as well as beaches and the marina. Proximity to Lisbon and major access routes reinforces the convenience and value of the project.

The Lighthouse offers a unique residential experience, ideal for permanent residence, holiday home or investment, combining quality construction, contemporary design and an excellent location in one of the most sought-after areas in Portugal.
