Description

The Machado Santos is a new and inspiring residential development situated in the heart of Montijo. With a privileged location, it offers the perfect balance between the tranquillity of a suburban setting and the proximity to the cosmopolitan life of Lisbon, just 25 minutes by ferry from the capital’s centre.

The project features a range of modern apartments, ranging from sleek T0 penthouses to T2 units with private patios and gardens. All units have been designed to provide comfort, functionality and an excellent value for money, ideal for those who wish to live in a central location while enjoying the charm and serenity of a riverside town.

Montijo’s picturesque streets, urban parks and local shops create a welcoming and authentic atmosphere, perfect for anyone seeking a peaceful lifestyle without sacrificing urban amenities and conveniences.

Living in Montijo means enjoying a unique blend of tranquillity and connectivity, with extensive green spaces such as Parque Urbano do Montijo, and easy access to the cultural, leisure and business hubs of the capital.

Completion is expected in the first half of 2027.
