Description

This is an excellent two-bedroom apartment, completely new and decorated, in a condominium with magnificent architecture and located right on the seafront in Quarteira.

The condominium was built and delivered in May 2025 and the apartment has already been completely furnished and decorated in a very beautiful and pleasant way, which will provide you with pleasant moments of comfort and day-to-day living.

The condominium and apartment have also been prepared for people with mobility difficulties. Access to the two parking spaces in the garage is easy via the elevators and the garages have excellent lighting and are already prepared for charging electric cars. In addition, there is an excellent storage room for your belongings.

The property's finishes, furniture, kitchen and bathrooms are also of high quality, which makes this apartment really pleasant.

In addition to all this, you will also have an excellent sea view and an excellent solar position, where the morning sun will keep the two suites completely illuminated and the rest of the day with sun entering your social area, kitchen and balcony.

The apartment has two suites, a guest bathroom, a fully equipped kitchen with a sea view, a living room and dining room with excellent lighting and a vast view of the sea, swimming pools and garden, and access to the balcony can be via the living room and/or kitchen.

The condominium is right on the seafront and is located in a very quiet area with all the amenities that Quarteira has to offer. For commuting to other locations, access is easy and you'll be on the main roads in the region in just a few minutes. If you're looking for tranquillity, an excellent apartment area, a condominium with a garden and swimming pools, this really is an excellent option for you and your family.

And if you still want to make a profit from this apartment, you will certainly be able to do so, as all the qualities of this apartment mentioned above will help you achieve this goal.
