Description

Privileged location in the heart of Lisbon

Located in the heart of one of Lisbon's most desirable residential districts, this development is close to the Gulbenkian Museum, El Corte Inglés shopping center, the University of Lisbon and very well served by all means of public transport.

Built in the 1970s, this former office building has now been given a new lease of life through a refurbishment project carried out by the renowned Portuguese architecture studio RMS - Rodrigo Machado Soares Arquitetos.

Quality of life with style and comfort

The project takes full advantage of the building's excellent surroundings, making it the perfect choice for a young, family-oriented and urban lifestyle.

The residential development consists of 17 sophisticated apartments, with 7 different types and areas ranging from 58 m² to 133 m².

Outdoor spaces that inspire

The large balconies and terraces with breathtaking views offer you the privilege of relaxing, breathing and enjoying the best of life.

CITIFLAT® focuses exclusively on what really matters: its residents.

Here, the design and construction solutions are always exceptional, designed to provide comfort, quality and well-being in every detail.
