Description

Prime location in the heart of Lisbon

Situated in the centre of one of Lisbon’s most sought-after residential districts, this development is close to the Gulbenkian Museum, El Corte Inglés shopping centre, the University of Lisbon and well served by all public transport links.

Built in the 1970s, this former office building now receives a new lease of life through a rehabilitation project led by the renowned Portuguese architecture studio RMS – Rodrigo Machado Soares Architects.

Quality of life with style and comfort

The design maximises the excellent surroundings of the building, making it the perfect choice for a young, family-friendly urban lifestyle.

The residential development comprises 17 sophisticated apartments, in seven distinct layouts, ranging from 58 m² to 133 m².

Inspiring outdoor spaces

Large balconies and terraces with stunning views give you the privilege to relax, breathe and enjoy the best of life.

CITIFLAT® focuses exclusively on what truly matters: its residents. Here, design and construction solutions are always exceptional, crafted to provide comfort, quality and well-being in every detail.
