Description

A bright and characterful home, designed to live in harmony between indoors and outdoors, in one of the most desirable residential areas of Cascais.

Set on a 870 m<sup>2</sup> plot in Quinta da Bicuda, this fully renovated house combines the charm and solidity of a traditional home with a more contemporary approach introduced in the 2017 renovation, emphasizing greater natural light and seamless connection to outdoor spaces.

With generous areas, several terraces, landscaped gardens, and excellent integration between indoor and outdoor spaces, this is an ideal home for relaxed family living and elegant entertaining.

The property's main highlight is the large terrace overlooking the pool and garden, a peaceful and pleasant environment, perfect for long outdoor lunches, sunset dinners, or simply enjoying the Cascais lifestyle year-round.

The house features 359 m<sup>2</sup> of private gross area spread over four floors, including 4 bedrooms, an office, recreational areas, and a separate annex with a Local Accommodation (AL) license.
