Description

Located in the historic heart of Portimão, this charming townhouse offers an authentic and comfortable atmosphere, ideal for those looking for the charm of the old center combined with modern amenities.

On the first floor, a corridor leads to a bedroom with a living room, a bathroom with shower and a large open-plan kitchen, equipped with a central island.

The kitchen opens onto a cozy backyard with a barbecue and an independent annex, perfect for receiving guests or creating a multifunctional space.

On the second floor, the house has two suites, each with a built-in closet and a private bathroom with shower. The rooms are equipped with reversible air conditioning and Velux windows with electric shutters, ensuring comfort and light all year round.

A rare opportunity in one of Portimão's most sought-after areas, with all the shops around, the municipal market, the church and the riverside promenade close by.
