Description

Large office with 2 parking spaces + storage

Looking for an office for services, accounting, showroom, workshop, gym or other service activities?

This single-storey space could be what you are looking for.

With legalised smoke extraction and building origin certification, it is spacious, well located and includes 2 parking spaces plus a storage area. The ground floor has abundant natural light and large windows on the façade.

The office is well situated with easy external parking in addition to the two parking spaces of the block.

A catering company currently operates here with external clients; these will soon become available.

Come see it - you can start your activity here.

Depending on the nature of the business, the kitchen may be subject to negotiation in the final sale price.

We look forward to hearing from you!
