Description

We present you with a charming and emblematic building in the heart of Évora, a locality filled with history and Alentejo charm. This property features 14 rooms distributed in a versatile and functional manner, allowing for multiple uses, such as residence, local accommodation or commercial venture. The well-preserved facade displays large windows and two storeys, maintaining traditional Portuguese style with colourful details that further enhance the property.

Inside, the building offers spacious and well-lit spaces, standing out for its high ceilings, classical elements and a welcoming atmosphere, ideal for projects requiring comfort and distinction. Each room features quality finishes, providing the possibility of multiple layouts and customised solutions. Access is facilitated by several doors on the main facade, allowing adaptation to different types of use.

The location in the centre of Évora guarantees proximity to all services, tourist attractions and cultural offerings, making this building an excellent investment for those seeking their own home as well as investors interested in tourism or commerce. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to acquire a property with history and potential in this benchmark city of the Alentejo.
