Description

Some properties are bought for what they are.

And some properties are bought for what they can become.

This house in Tavira represents a rare opportunity to create a premium residence in one of the most sought-after areas of the Algarve.

With an unobstructed view over the city and surrounding natural environment, this property stands out for its location, privacy, size, and great potential for appreciation.

Just a few minutes from the historic center of Tavira, Ria Formosa, and the beaches of the Southern Algarve, this is the ideal choice for those looking for a distinctive project, whether for permanent residence, holiday home, or real estate investment.

The house requires modernization, allowing the future owner to transform the property according to their taste and create a truly unique home in a location that is increasingly limited and valued.

Main features:

- * Panoramic view over Tavira
- * Excellent sunlight exposure
- * Spacious and bright areas
- * Quiet and private area
- * Strong potential for remodeling and appreciation
- * Premium location in the Algarve
- * Close to the center, shops, restaurants, and beaches

In a market where properties with strategic location are becoming scarcer, this house offers a rare combination of location, size, and potential.

Ideal for:

Main residence

Holiday home in the Algarve

Real estate investment

Premium renovation project

Tavira - Algarve

Some properties are simply waiting for the right vision to be transformed into something truly extraordinary.

Schedule your private visit and personally discover the potential, location, and exclusivity that this house can offer.
